

Annual Conference & AGM

21 - 23 January, 2022

“Back to the Battlefields”

The Guild’s Annual Conference and AGM is taking place over the weekend of 21 - 23 January, 2022.

We’re slowly returning to a way of life that makes it easier to visit the battlefields. As an organisation that has members worldwide, our resilience over the past 18 months has been noteworthy. Now it is time to look ahead. This year’s theme for our Annual Conference will be “Back to the Battlefields”.

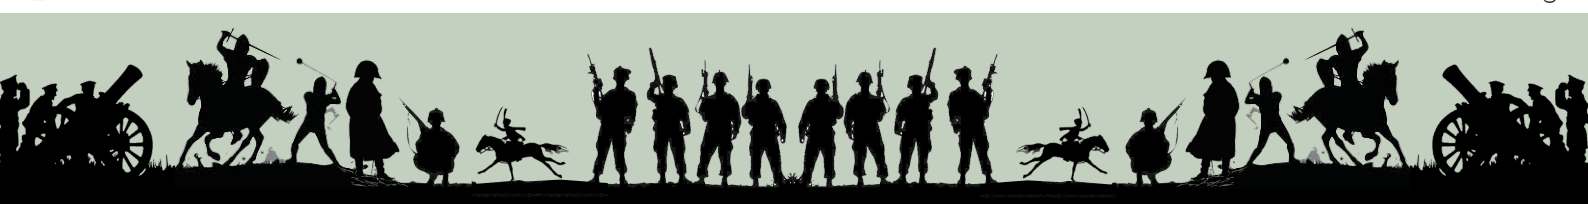

The future presents challenges, but it also offers many new and exciting guiding opportunities.

As Guides, could we look at other ways of working? Will regulation impact people’s appetites for battlefield tours? What effect will Covid-19 have on our industry, long term, and how do we practice continuous improvement in educating and engaging our clients?

Guest speakers will expand our horizons, at home and abroad, and our Insight Sessions will offer valuable information on a number of topics.

Members will be pleased to know our annual social traditions are all on the programme, as is an optional site visit to Bletchley Park on Friday 21.
